

Mercer County Job and Family Services

PRC FACT SHEET

What is PRC? Prevention Services: Services provided with the intent to divert an Assistance Group from ongoing cash assistance, Retention Services: Services provided with the intent of allowing an employed, adult caretaker in an AG to maintain earned income and employment, Contingency Services: Services provided with the intent to meet an emergent need, which threatens the health, safety or well-being of one or more assistance group members. PRC is designed to serve eligible Mercer County Families by encouraging families to attain and retain employment, prevent dependency and promote family stability.

What is an Assistance Group? In general, an AG is composed of one or two adult caretakers and their minor child(ren), (An individual under age eighteen (18), or eighteen but not yet nineteen (19)) including step-child or natural child, or a child for whom they have assumed responsibility. The AG must include at least one minor child or a woman whose pregnancy is medically verified or a noncustodial parent who has a legal obligation to pay child support for a child living in Ohio. With regard to any employment-related assistance, there must be a minor child residing in the home, whether or not that child is directly dependent upon the applicant. Persons not US Citizens and fugitive felons and probation/parole violators are not eligible for PRC Services. Households with an outstanding fraudulent OWF or PRC claim are not eligible for PRC Services until claim is repaid. Additional ineligibility situations may apply for Shelter Expenses.

Shelter Expenses: Assistance with rent requires a written notice for applicant to leave the premises from the landlord. Emergency Shelter is only for an individual(s) living in a domestic violence shelter, to allow these individuals to move from the shelters. Utilities require a shut off notice issued to the applicant. Assistance may also be provided to replace or repair hot water heaters. $450 maximum per 1-year period, Shelter expenses can be utilized no more than 2 times every 1-year period.

Job Readiness: When engaged in the job search process, MCJFS may provide readiness expenses including: grooming, daycare application fees, GED testing fees, interview and job search clothing, prior testing required by potential employer (but not paid for by employer), transportation for job search and assistance with job search. Assistance is available to qualified individuals for up to $500 per AG per year.

Work-Related Expenses: Verification of current & substantial (20 hours a week) employment required

Fees: An eligible person may receive assistance with vehicle insurance, vehicle payments, driver's license reinstatement fees*(* fees limited to one time only and shall not include fees due to OVI or traffic fatalities or equivalent) up to $400 per year.

Fuel & Travel Expense To and From Employment: If the applicant does not have any access to transportation the following service MAY be available: For the first 2 week time period (may be adjusted by PRC caseworker due to special circumstances, ie. Training schedule), transportation may be provided by a MCJFS employee. Once the 2 week transport is exhausted, participant may be issued an additional $50 in gas vouchers for the remaining 2 weeks of the 30 days of eligibility (limited to 2 occurrence per year)

Continuing assistance is available for fuel expenditures in the form of vouchers up to $100 per month, with a limit of $600 per year. Every 30 days, the applicant must submit current income for last 30 days to remain eligible for this continuing assistance.

Vehicle Repair: Assistance is available to qualified persons for vehicle repairs up to $3000 for one 36 month time period provided the vehicle is the only available vehicle in the household. Requests for vehicle repair shall be limited to the lowest of 2 quotes of a business registered to perform vehicle repair with the Secretary of State and have a sales tax reporting number from the county auditor. Two quotes may not be required if towing/diagnostic testing is required. Vehicle repair excludes motorcycles.

Employment-Related Accessories: Assistance is also available for safety related and required shoes, uniforms and equipment necessary for employment up to $250 per year.

If you feel you may qualify for services or if you have questions regarding Mercer County's PRC Program, please contact:

Mandee Slavik at: 419-586-5106 x 41 / 220 W Livingston Street, Suite 10, Celina OH 45822

Revised

07/01/18